PRESS RELEASE

Miles Nelson's innovative 700SC latching door stop.

Innovation at its best. Miles Nelson's new 700SC latching door stop is the latest addition to the already extensive range of quality hardware products.

The Miles Nelson registered design provides a unique hold back and quick release solution for latching back doors.

The foot release design and simple operation allow for use in both commercial and residential applications.

Made from Zinc Alloy and finished powder coat Satin Chrome.

The 700SC latching door stop is suitable for interior and exterior use. The 700SC design allows for left and right hand door operation.

The 700SC latching doorstop is available now.
